- (b) any other incident involving a threat to the life, health or safety of passengers.

(7) In this Regulation the “Hague Visby Rules” means the International Convention for the Unification of certain rules of law relating to bills of lading signed in Brussels on 25th August 1924, as amended by the Protocol signed in Brussels on 23rd February 1968 and by the Protocol signed in Brussels on 21st December 1979.

(5) In this Regulation “foreign company” means a company or body which is not one to which section 62A of the Companies Act 1981 applies, so as to authorise the service of the document in question.

Expulsion order

7 Where a flag State has informed the Chief Marine Surveyor of the Bermuda Shipping and Maritime Authority that it has issued an expulsion order in respect of a ship, the Minister must refuse that ship entry to any port in Bermuda until the shipowner produces to the Minister, the documentation referred to in Regulation 5(1).

Power to detain

8 (1) A ship may be detained if anyone attempts to navigate it out of a port in contravention of Regulation 3.

(2) Section 242 of the Act (which relates to the detention of a ship) has effect in relation to the ship, subject to the modification that, for—

- (a) “this Act”, substitute “the Merchant Shipping (Compulsory Insurance of Shipowners for Maritime Claims) Regulations 2019”; and
- (b) “owner of a ship”, substitute “shipowner”.

(3) An officer detaining the ship must serve on the master of the ship a detention notice which—

(2) Where a notice is given by the master or shipowner in accordance with paragraph (1), the giving of the notice does not suspend the operation of the detention notice.

(3) The arbitrator may have regard to any matter not specified in the detention notice which appears to the arbitrator to be relevant as to whether the ship was or was not liable to be detained.

(4) Where the arbitrator decides, as respects a matter to which the reference relates, that in all the circumstances the matter did not constitute a valid basis for the officer’s opinion, the arbitrator must—

- (a) cancel the detention notice; or
- (b) affirm it with such modifications as the arbitrator may in the circumstances think fit.

(5) In any case other than one described in paragraph (4), the arbitrator must affirm the detention notice in its original form.

(6) The decision of the arbitrator must include a finding whether there was or was not a valid basis for the detention of the ship.

- (a) a person holding a certificate of competency as a master mariner or as a marine engineer officer class 1, or a person holding a certificate equivalent to any such certificate;

Compensation for unjustified detention

- (a) that the matter complained of did not constitute a valid basis for the officer's opinion; and
- (b) that there were no reasonable grounds for the issue of the detention notice, the arbitrator must award the shipowner such compensation in respect of any loss suffered in consequence of the detention of the ship, as the arbitrator thinks fit.
