(9) An application for leave to substitute some other mode of service for the modes of service prescribed by paragraph (1), or to substitute notice of the proceedings by advertisement or otherwise, shall be made ex parte by lodging an affidavit setting out the grounds on which the application is made; and the form of any advertisement shall be settled by the registrar.

(10) Where it appears necessary or expedient to do so the registrar may by order dispense with service of a copy of an application on the respondent or on any other person, and an application to the registrar for an order under this paragraph may, if no notice of intention to defend has been given, be made ex parte by lodging an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application.

Notice of intention to defend

12 (1) In these Rules any reference to a notice of intention to defend is a reference to an acknowledgment of service in Form 7 containing a statement to the effect that the person by whom or on whose behalf it is signed intends to defend the proceedings to which the acknowledgment relates, and any reference to giving notice of intention to defend is a reference to returning such a notice to the registry.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES RULES 2023

(2) In relation to any person on whom there is served a document requiring or authorising an acknowledgment of service to be returned to the registry, references in these Rules to the time limited for giving notice of intention to defend are references to eight days after service of the document, inclusive of the day of service, or such other time as may be fixed.

(3) Notice of intention to defend a cause begun by application may be given at any time before directions for trial are given, notwithstanding that the time limited for giving the notice has expired.

(3) Without prejudice to the right of any other person entitled to apply for an order as respects a child, the guardian of any child of the family and any other person who, by virtue of an order of a court, has the custody or control of such a child or his care or supervision in pursuance of section 47 of the Act may, without obtaining leave to intervene in the cause, apply by summons for such an order as is mentioned in paragraph (1).

(4) On any application to a judge relating to the custody, care and control of, or access to, a child—

66 (1) A judge or the registrar may at any time refer to the Director of Child and Family Services for investigation and report any matter arising in matrimonial proceedings which concerns the welfare of a child.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1), any party to an application to which rule 65 applies may, before the application is heard, request the registrar to call for a report from the Director on any matter arising on the application, and if the registrar is satisfied that the other parties to the application consent and that sufficient information is available to enable the Director to carry out the investigation, the registrar may refer the matter to the Director for investigation and report before the hearing.

(3) Where a reference is made under this rule—

- (a) the Director may inspect the court file;
- (b) after completing his investigation, the Director shall file his report and the registrar shall thereupon notify the parties that they may inspect it and may request copies on payment of the prescribed fee;

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES RULES 2023

“person under disability” means a person who is a minor or a patient.

(2) A person under disability may begin and prosecute any matrimonial proceedings by his next friend and may defend any such proceedings by his guardian ad litem and, except as otherwise provided by this rule, it shall not be necessary for a guardian ad litem to be appointed by the court.

(3) No person’s name shall be used in any proceedings as next friend of a person under disability unless the documents mentioned in paragraph (8) have been filed.

(4) Where a person is authorised under Part IV to conduct legal proceedings in the name of a patient or on his behalf, that person shall, subject to paragraph (3), be entitled to be next friend or guardian ad litem of the patient in any matrimonial proceedings to which his authority extends.

(5) Where a person entitled to defend any matrimonial proceedings is a patient and there is no person authorised under Part IV to defend the proceedings in his name or on his behalf, then an application may be made on behalf of the patient for the appointment of a guardian ad litem, and there shall be filed in support of any application under this paragraph the documents mentioned in paragraph (8).

(6) Where an application, answer, or originating summons has been served on a person whom there is reasonable ground for believing to be a person under disability and no notice of intention to defend has been given, or answer or affidavit in answer filed, on his behalf, the party at whose instance the document was served shall, before taking any further step in the proceedings, apply to the registrar for directions as to whether a guardian ad litem should be appointed to act for that person in the cause, and on any such application the registrar may, if he considers it necessary in order to protect the interests of the person served, order that some proper person be appointed his guardian ad litem.

(7) No notice of intention to defend shall be given, or answer or affidavit in answer filed, by or on behalf of a person under disability unless the person giving the notice or filing the answer or affidavit in answer has filed the documents mentioned in paragraph (8).

(8) The documents referred to in paragraphs (3), (5) and (7) are—

disability is a patient, that there is no person authorised as aforesaid; and

- (ii) that the person named in the certificate as next friend or guardian ad litem has no interest in the cause or matter in question adverse to that of the person under disability and that he is a proper person to be next friend or guardian ad litem.

Service on person under disability

78 (1) Where a document to which rule 11 applies is required to be served on a person under disability within the meaning of rule 77, it shall be served—

Provided that the court may order that a document which has been, or is to be, served on the person under disability or on a person other than one mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) shall be deemed to be duly served on the person under disability.

(2) Where a document is served in accordance with paragraph (1) it shall be indorsed with a notice in Form 23; and after service has been effected the person at whose instance the document was served shall, unless the court otherwise directs, file an affidavit by the person on whom the document was served stating whether the contents of the document were, or its purport was, communicated to the person under disability and, if not, the reasons for not doing so.

79 (1) Where an application for a nullity of marriage order has been presented on the ground that at the time of the marriage the respondent was suffering from mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1968 of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfitted for marriage, then, whether or not the respondent gives notice of intention to defend, the applicant shall not proceed with the cause without the leave of the registrar.

(2) The registrar by whom an application for leave is heard may make it a condition of granting leave that some proper person be appointed to act as guardian ad litem of the respondent.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES RULES 2023

Separate representation of children

80 (1) Without prejudice to rule 52, if in any matrimonial proceedings it appears to the court that any child ought to be separately represented, the court may on the application of any proper person, appoint that person to be guardian ad litem of the child with authority to take part in the proceedings on the child's behalf.

(2) The applicant for an order under paragraph (1) shall, on making the application, file a certificate by an attorney certifying that the person named in the certificate as the proposed guardian ad litem has no interest in the proceedings adverse to that of the child and that he is a proper person to be such guardian.

PART 13

PROCEDURE: GENERAL

Service out of Bermuda

81 (1) Any document in matrimonial proceedings may be served out of Bermuda without leave either in the manner prescribed by these Rules or in accordance with R.S.C. Order 11, (which relates to the service of a writ abroad).

(2) Where the document is served in accordance with R.S.C. Order 11, that Order shall have effect in relation to service of the document as it has effect in relation to service of notice of a writ:

Provided that in any case where a document is, under these Rules, required to be served personally, a certificate shall be furnished to show the server's means of knowledge of the identity of the person served.

(3) Where an application for an order of divorce, nullity of marriage or judicial separation is to be served on a person out of Bermuda, then—

- (a) the time within which that person must give notice of intention to defend shall be determined having regard to the practice adopted under R.S.C. Order 11, rule 4(4) (which requires an order for leave to serve a writ out of the jurisdiction to limit the time for appearance), and the notice in Form 5 shall be amended accordingly;
- (b) if there is reasonable ground for believing that the person to be served does not understand English, the application shall be accompanied by a translation, approved by the registrar, of the notice in Form 5, in the official language of the country in which service is to be effected or, if there is more than one official language of that country, in any one of those languages which is appropriate to the place where service is to be effected:

Provided that this sub-paragraph shall not apply in relation to a document which is to be served in a country in which the official language, or one of the official languages, is English.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES RULES 2023

- (b) if he is acting in person, to the address for service given by him or, if he has not given an address for service, his last known address, but if in the opinion of the registrar the document would be unlikely to reach him if sent to that address, the registrar may dispense with sending the document to him;
- (c) if he is acting in person, to the electronic mail address given by him as verified in an affidavit filed with the court.

Service of documents where no special mode of service prescribed

83 Unless otherwise directed, service of any document in matrimonial proceedings shall, if no other mode of service is prescribed or ordered, be effected—

- (a) if an attorney is acting for the person to be served, by leaving the document at, or sending it by post to, the attorney's address;
- (b) if the person to be served is acting in person, by delivering the document to him or by leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the address for service given by him or, if he has not given an address for service, his last known address:

Provided that where, in a case to which sub-paragraph (b) applies, it appears to the registrar that it is impracticable to deliver the document to the person to be served and that, if the document were left at, or sent by post to, the address specified in that subparagraph, it would be unlikely to reach him, the registrar may dispense with service of the document.

Proof of service by registrar

84 (1) Where an application is sent to any person by the registrar, he shall indorse on a copy of Form 5 the date of posting and the address written on the letter and shall sign the indorsement.

(2) An indorsement made pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be evidence of the facts stated therein.

86 R.S.C. Order 3, rule 6 (which requires a party to give notice of intention to proceed after a year's delay), shall not apply to any matrimonial proceedings.

Mode of giving notice

87 Unless otherwise directed, any notice which is required by these Rules to be given to any person shall be in writing and, if it is to be given by the registrar, shall be given by—

- (a) post;
- (b) personal service;
- (c) electronic means where an application to the Court has been made and leave has been granted for substituted service by electronic means; or
