WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce the age of majority from twenty-one years to eighteen years; to make provision for the time when a particular age is attained and to provide for connected matters:

Be it enacted by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Assembly of Bermuda, and by the authority of the same, as follows—

AGE OF MAJORITY ACT 2001

Citation

1 This Act may be cited as the Age of Majority Act 2001.

Operative date

2 In this Act “the operative date” means the date on which this Act comes into operation.

Age of majority

3 (1) Every person attains the age of majority and ceases to be a minor on attaining the age of eighteen years.

(2) Every person who is over the age of eighteen years but under the age of twenty-one years on the operative date attains the age of majority on that date.

Application of section 3

4 Section 3 applies for the purpose of any law in respect of which the Legislature has jurisdiction.

Meaning of words

5 (1) In the absence of a definition or of an indication of a contrary intention, section 3 applies to the construction of the expressions “adult”, “full age”, “lawful age”, “infant”, “infancy”, “minor”, “minority”, “majority” and similar expressions in—

(a) any Act or statutory instrument; and

(b) any deed, will or other instrument made on or after the operative date.

(2) The use of any expression set out in subsection (1) or any similar expression shall not, in itself, be taken to indicate a contrary intention for the purposes of this section without some further indication of a contrary intention.

Modification of existing Acts and statutory instruments and consequential amendments

6 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), in any provision of an Act of the Legislature or any regulation, rule, order or bylaw made under an Act of the Legislature enacted or made before the operative date, a reference to the age of twenty-one years shall be read as a reference to the age of eighteen years.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), in the construction of this Act the expression “twenty-one years” means twenty-one years and subsection (1) does not apply to this Act.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the references to the age of twenty-one years in the statutory provisions set out in the First Schedule.

Consequential amendments

7 (1) The statutory provisions set out in column 1 of the Second Schedule are amended by deleting the words set out in column 2 and substituting the words set out in column 3.

AGE OF MAJORITY ACT 2001

(2) Section 12(4)(b) of the Contributory Pensions Act 1970 is repealed and the following is substituted:

- “(b) in the case of a person who paid contributions before the date on which the Age of Majority Act 2001 comes into operation, beginning with the first day of the contribution year in which he attains the age of 21 years;
- (bb) in any other case, beginning with the first day of the contribution year in which he attains the age of 18 years;”.

United Kingdom Acts

8 Where by any Act of the Legislature, an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or any provision thereof is made to apply in respect of any act or matter or thing over which the Legislature has jurisdiction, then in applying that Act of Parliament or that provision thereof in respect of that act, or matter or thing, any reference to the age of twenty-one years in the Act of Parliament or provision thereof shall be read as a reference to the age of eighteen years.

Modification of court orders and directions

9 (1) In any order or direction of a court made before the operative date, in absence of an indication of a contrary intention, a reference to the age of twenty-one years or to any age between eighteen and twenty-one years or to any of the expressions referred to in subsection 5(1) and similar expressions shall be read as a reference to the age of eighteen years.

(2) The use of the words “twenty-one years” in an order or direction referred to in subsection (1) shall not, in itself, be taken to indicate a contrary intention for the purposes of this section without some further indication of a contrary intention.

Time of attaining particular age

10 (1) The time at which a person attains a particular age expressed in years shall be on the commencement of the relevant anniversary of the date of his birth.

(2) This section applies only where the relevant anniversary falls on a date after the operative date, and in relation to any enactment, deed, will or other instrument, has effect subject to any provision therein.

Effect of new codicil on existing wills

11 Notwithstanding any rule of law, a will or codicil executed before the operative date shall not be treated for the purposes of this Act as made on or after that date by reason only that the will or codicil is confirmed by a codicil executed on or after that date.

AGE OF MAJORITY ACT 2001

Effect on statutory provisions incorporated in existing wills, etc which are not affected by section 5

12 This Act does not affect the construction of a provision of an Act or a statutory instrument that is incorporated in and has effect as part of a deed, will or other instrument if the construction of the deed, will or other instrument is not affected by section 5.

Accumulation not affected

13 This Act does not invalidate any direction for accumulation expressed in a settlement or other disposition made by deed, will or other instrument and executed before the operative date that, but for this Act, was a permissible period of accumulation.

Perpetuities not affected

14 This Act does not apply so as to affect the law relating to perpetuities.

Right of action and defence preserved

15 This Act does not prejudice a right of action or a defence to an action based upon the age of a party and that was in existence on the operative date and, notwithstanding this Act, the law that was in force immediately prior to the operative date applies in that case.

Commencement

16 This Act comes into operation on such date as the Minister responsible for the Legislature may appoint by notice published in the Gazette.
