EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

WHEREAS it is expedient to promote the fair treatment of employers and employees by providing minimum standards of employment, by establishing procedures and notice periods for the termination of employment, by providing employees with protection against unfair dismissal, and by establishing the Employment Tribunal; and to make connected provision;

Be it enacted by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Assembly of Bermuda, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I INTRODUCTORY

Short title and commencement

- 1 (1) This Act may be cited as the Employment Act 2000.
- (2) This Act shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may appoint by notice published in the Gazette.

Application

- 2 (1) Subject to any express provision to the contrary in this Act or regulations, this Act applies to all employers and employees.
- (2) An agreement to waive any of the requirements of this Act and the regulations is of no effect.
- (3) Where any of the rights of an employee established by any other Act, agreement, contract of employment, custom or practice are more favourable than this Act requires, the provisions so established prevail over this Act.

Interpretation

- 3 In this Act—
- “bullying” has the meaning given in section 10B;
- “civil penalty” means a civil penalty imposed in respect of a contravention of this Act either by—
- (a) the Manager in accordance with section 37A; or

Employment and Labour Code

3A The provisions of this Act together with those of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021 (including any subordinate legislation made thereunder), shall constitute the Employment and Labour Code of Bermuda.

[Section 3A inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Meaning of “employee”

4 (1) For the purposes of this Act, “employee” means—

- (a) a person who is employed wholly or mainly in Bermuda for remuneration under a contract of employment;

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (b) any other person who performs services wholly or mainly in Bermuda for another person for remuneration on such terms and conditions that his relationship with that person more closely resembles that of an employee than an independent contractor; but does not include a person who falls within subsection (2).

(2) The following persons are not employees for the purposes of this Act—

- (a) a person who is under the age of sixteen years;
- (b) a casual worker;
- (c) a part-time employee;
- (d) a temporary employee;
- (e) a student;
- (f) a voluntary worker;
- (g) such other class of persons as may be prescribed by regulations.

(2A) For the purposes of determining under subsection (1)(b) whether a relationship more closely resembles that of an employee than an independent contractor, the Manager may—

- (a) issue guidance and may, from time to time, revise such guidance;
- (b) publish such guidance so issued or revised in such manner as he considers appropriate.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)—

“casual worker” means a person who works from time to time for remuneration for one or more employers, but who does not seek the rights and obligations of a contract of employment;

“part-time employee” means a person who is employed by an employer for less than fifteen hours a week;

“student” means a person who is, by virtue of section 1(3) of the Contributory Pensions Act 1970 (students employed in vacation etc), deemed not to be an employed person for the purposes of that Act;

“temporary employee” means a person who is employed for no more than three months in any year by an employer;

“voluntary worker” means a person who works on a voluntary basis for a charity or other philanthropic organisation.

(4) Regulations made pursuant to subsection (2)(g) shall be subject to the negative resolution procedure.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(5) Section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 shall not apply to any guidance issued or revised under this section.

[Section 4 subsections (1) and (4) amended by 2006:12 s.3 effective 8 June 2006; Section 4 subsections (2A) and (5) inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 3 effective 1 June 2021]

Meaning of “continuous employment”

5 (1) An employee’s period of continuous employment shall begin from and include the first day on which he begins to work for an employer (including any probationary period) and shall continue up to and including the date of termination.

(2) It shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the employment of an employee is continuous.

(3) An employee’s period of continuous employment shall be deemed to continue during any period of absence from work—

- (a) due to his taking leave, whether annual leave, maternity leave, paternity leave, sick leave or any other leave in accordance with this Act or his contract, provided that any period of sick leave does not extend beyond four weeks;
- (b) due to his suspension, with or without pay, in accordance with this Act or his contract;
- (c) due to the termination of his contract, if he is reinstated or re-engaged under Part V;
- (d) due to an inability to work on account of an occupational disease or accident resulting from that employment;
- (da) due to lay off;
- (e) due to a lock-out;
- (f) by agreement with his employer.

(4) Periods of short term contracts granted in succession with less than thirty day intervals shall count for the purpose of calculating the period of continuous employment.

(5) Acceptance of severance pay by an employee shall terminate his period of continuous employment.

(6) Where a business is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, the period of employment with the former employer shall be deemed to constitute a single period of employment with the successor employer, if the employment was not terminated and severance pay was not paid pursuant to this Act.

[Section 5 subsection (3)(a) amended by 2019 : 39 s. 5 effective 1 January 2020; Section 5 subsection (3)(da) inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 4 effective 1 June 2021]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

PART II CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Statement of employment

6 (1) Not later than one week after an employee begins employment with an employer, the employer shall give to the employee a written statement of employment which shall be signed and dated by the employer and employee.

(2) The statement shall contain particulars of the following—

- (a) the full names of the employer and employee;
- (b) the date when the employment began;
- (c) the job title and brief description of the work for which the employee is employed;
- (d) the place or places of work;
- (e) the gross wage or the method of calculating it, and the intervals at which it is to be paid;
- (f) the normal days and hours of employment or, where the job involves shift work, the normal pattern of the shifts;
- (g) the entitlement to holidays, including public holidays, and paid vacation leave;
- (ga) the entitlement to rest days and meal breaks;
- (gb) the entitlement to overtime pay or hours in lieu and the rate of overtime pay or the method of calculating it;
- (h) the terms relating to incapacity for work due to sickness or injury, including provision for sick leave;
- (i) the length of notice which the employee is obliged to give, and entitled to receive, to terminate his contract of employment;
- (j) details of any pension provided, whether under the National Pension Scheme (Occupational Pensions) Act 1998 or otherwise;
- (k) any disciplinary and grievance procedures applicable;
- (l) where the employment is not expected to be permanent, the period for which it is expected to continue or, if it is for a fixed term, the date on which it is to end;
- (m) any probationary period;
- (n) any dress code;
- (o) the existence of any collective agreement which directly affects the terms and conditions of the employment;

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (p) where the employment is pursuant to a work permit, the date of issue and expiry of that work permit, any employment-related conditions (including any requirement to work at more than one location) and any immigration restrictions set out in the work permit;
- (q) the existence of the employer's written policy against bullying and sexual harassment in the workplace and how the policy can be accessed;
- (qa) where required under section 10J, the existence of the employer's written policy in relation to the management, protection and fair distribution of employee tips and other gratuities within the workplace and how the policy can be accessed;
- (r) such other matters as may be prescribed, and may contain other details relating to the terms and conditions of employment.

(3) Where there are no particulars to be entered under paragraphs (k) to (o) of subsection (2), that fact shall be noted in the statement.

(4) The statement may refer the employee for particulars of the matters mentioned in (g) to (k), (n) and (q) of subsection (2) to—

- (a) the provisions of any collective agreement which directly affects the terms and conditions of his employment; or
- (b) to any other relevant document, which is copied to the employee.

(4A) Where by virtue of section 9(2) there is no payment of overtime or hours in lieu, that fact shall be noted in the statement.

(5) Where—

- (a) additional matters to be included in the statement are prescribed under paragraph (r) of subsection (2); or
- (b) the employer and employee agree to change any of the terms of employment particularised in the statement;

the employer shall, as soon as practicable and no later than one month after the matters are prescribed or the change agreed, give to the employee an amendment to the statement containing particulars of the change or a revised statement which shall (in either case) be signed and dated by the employer and employee.

(6) This section applies, with the necessary modifications, to—

- (a) persons falling within section 4(2) (students, casual, part-time and temporary employees, voluntary workers, etc); and
- (b) such other persons as may be prescribed by regulations,

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

who are not employees for the purposes of this Act; but nothing in this subsection shall be taken to entitle such persons to any of the matters listed in subsection (2) or to any entitlements under this Act which are not applicable to persons who are not employees.

(7) An employer who contravenes this section shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Manager or the Tribunal.

[Section 6 subsection (2)(g) amended by 2019 : 39 s. 5 effective 1 January 2020; Section 6 amended by 2021 : 2 s. 5 effective 1 June 2021; Section 6 subsections (6) and (7) inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021; Section 6 subsection (2)(qa) inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 3 effective 1 March 2024]

Itemised pay statement

7 (1) An employer shall give to each of his employees a written itemised pay statement, at or before the payment of any wages.

(2) The statement shall contain particulars of—

- (a) the period of time or the work for which the wages are being paid;
- (b) the rate of wages to which the employee is entitled and the number of hours worked, where the number of hours worked varies from week to week;
- (c) the gross amount of wages to which the employee is entitled;
- (d) the amount and purpose of any deduction made from that amount;
- (e) any bonus, gratuity, living allowance or other payment to which the employee is entitled; and
- (f) the net amount of money being paid to the employee.

Unauthorised deductions

8 (1) An employer shall not make a deduction from an employee's wages unless—

- (a) the deduction is required or authorised to be made by virtue of this or any other enactment, a collective agreement or a provision of the employee's contract, or by order of any court or tribunal; or
- (b) the employee has previously signified in writing his agreement or consent to the making of the deduction.

(2) Where the total amount of wages paid on any occasion by an employer to an employee is less than the total amount payable on that occasion, the amount of the deficiency shall be treated as a deduction for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply—

- (a) where the purpose of the deduction is the reimbursement of the employer in respect of an overpayment of wages or an overpayment in respect of expenses incurred by the employee in carrying out his employment;

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (b) to a deduction made in consequence of any disciplinary proceedings which were held by virtue of this or any other enactment;
- (c) to a deduction made in consequence of an employee's participation in a strike or irregular industrial action short of a strike that results in a withdrawal of labour.

Overtime

9 (1) Any hours worked by an employee in excess of forty hours a week shall either—

- (a) be paid at the overtime rate; or
- (b) be paid at the employee's normal hourly wage and compensated by giving him the same number of hours time off in lieu.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply—

- (a) where the employee is a professional or managerial employee whose statement of employment indicates that his annual salary has been calculated to reflect the fact that his regular duties are likely to require him to work, on occasion, more than forty hours a week; or
- (b) in any other case where the employer and employee agree in writing that it shall not apply.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the Minister may, after consulting the Labour Advisory Council, modify the effect of subsection (1) by prescribing a different number of hours for specified types of employer or employee, and in doing so shall take into account such matters as he considers relevant, including—

- (a) the seasonal nature of the work; and
- (b) the effect of the different number of hours on the health and safety of employees and the public.

(4) Regulations made pursuant to subsection (3) shall be subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.

[Section 9 subsection (2)(b) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 6 effective 1 June 2021]

Rest days

10 (1) An employer shall provide each employee with a rest period of at least twenty-four consecutive hours in each week.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to—

- (a) police officers;
- (b) prison officers;
- (c) fire officers;

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (d) medical practitioners and nurses employed at the hospitals, as defined by the Bermuda Hospitals Board Act 1970; and
- (e) such other classes of employee as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section.

Meal breaks

10A An employer shall not require an employee—

- (a) to work for more than five hours continuously without a meal break of at least 30 minutes;
- (b) to perform any work during his meal break, without the consent of that employee.

[Section 10A inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Employer to provide policy statement against bullying and sexual harassment

10B (1) In this section—

“bullying” means the habitual display of offensive behaviour intended to harm, intimidate, humiliate, undermine or coerce a person or group of employees and includes, but is not limited to, ostracising, ridiculing, shouting at, threatening, and verbally abusing a person or group of employees; and

“sexual harassment” includes any one or more incidences of any of the following—

- (a) the use of sexually suggestive words, comments, jokes, gestures or actions that annoy, alarm or abuse a person;
- (b) the initiation of uninvited physical contact with a person;
- (c) the initiation of unwelcome sexual advances or the requests of sexual favours from a person;
- (d) asking a person intrusive questions that are of a sexual nature pertaining to that person’s private life;
- (e) transmitting sexually offensive writing or material of any kind;
- (f) making sexually offensive telephone or internet calls or messages to a person; or
- (g) any other sexually suggestive conduct in circumstances where a reasonable person would consider the conduct to be offensive.

(2) An employer shall ensure—

- (a) that there is a clear written policy statement against bullying and sexual harassment within the place of work for which that employer has responsibility;
- (b) that the policy statement is presented to each employee on the commencement of his employment with that employer; and

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(c) that procedures are put in place to assist every employee in understanding the policy statement.

(3) The policy statement referred to in subsection (2) must contain the terms set out in Schedule 1 and an employer may consult with employees, trade unions or other representatives (if any) in the establishment of the policy statement.

(4) The Minister may by order amend Schedule 1.

(5) Section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 shall not apply to an order under subsection (4).

(6) Any employer who contravenes this section shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Manager or the Tribunal.

[Section 10B inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 7 effective 1 June 2021; Section 10B subsection (6) inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

PART IIA

PROTECTION OF EMPLOYEE TIPS AND OTHER GRATUITIES

Application of Part

10C (1) In this part—

“other gratuities” means—

- (a) a payment in return for services, voluntarily made to an employer by a customer, in excess of any basic fee or standard charge imposed;
- (b) a payment of a service charge or similar charge imposed, by an employer on a customer for services, in excess of the basic fee;

“payment arrangement” means an arrangement between an employer and another person under which other gratuities are to be received by that other person instead of the employer;

“tip” means a payment in return for services, voluntarily made to or left for an employee by a customer of that employee’s employer, in excess of any basic fee or standard charge imposed;

“tip pool” means the voluntary pooling together of tips by some or all of an employer’s employees for the purposes of redistribution among some or all of the employer’s employees, where such pooling and redistribution is managed and controlled by the employees so participating.

(2) Notwithstanding section 4, an “employee” under this Part includes a worker to whom the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021 applies; and such worker shall for the purposes of this Part and sections 36, 37 and 39 of this Act be treated as if he were an employee under this Act, and section 2(3) of this Act applies accordingly.

[Section 10C inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Withholding of tips or other gratuities prohibited

10D (1) An employer shall not withhold tips or other gratuities from an employee, make a deduction from an employee's tips or other gratuities, or cause an employee to give his tips or other gratuities to the employer except where so authorised or required by—

- (a) this Act or other enactment; or
- (b) order of any court or tribunal.

(2) An employer who contravenes subsection (1) shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Tribunal

(3) For the purposes of an order under section 39, subsection (1)(b) of that section shall be read as if the reference to wages included tips and other gratuities.

(4) This section applies without prejudice to any order made under section 11 of the Employment (Wage Commission) Act 2019 or any enforcement measures taken under the Employment (Minimum Hourly Wage Entitlement) Act 2022 in respect of such order.

[Section 10D inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Pooling and redistribution of other gratuities for employees

10E (1) An employer may withhold or make a deduction from other gratuities or cause an employee to give them to the employer if the employer collects and redistributes other gratuities among some or all of the employer's employees.

(2) An employer may make a payment arrangement for the collection and redistribution of other gratuities, among some or all of the employer's employees, to be carried out on behalf of the employer or by an independent third party.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this section permits an employer to—

- (a) withhold or make a deduction from any tip;
- (b) cause an employee to give any tip to the employer; or
- (c) collect or make any arrangement for the collection or redistribution of tips.

[Section 10E inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Employer to ensure timely payment of other gratuities

10F (1) Notwithstanding any payment arrangement under section 10E(2), where an amount of other gratuities is to be redistributed to an employee, that amount is payable to the employee by the employer as follows—

- (a) in the case of an employee who is paid wages on a monthly basis, not later than 30 days following the date on which the other gratuities were paid by the customer; or

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (b) in the case of an employee who is paid wages on less than an a monthly basis, not later than 14 days following the date on which the other gratuities were paid by the customer.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this section shall derogate from any pay reference period set out in an order made under section 11 of the Employment (Wage Commission) Act 2019 and within which payments constituting other gratuities are to be made to an employee to whom that Act applies.

[Section 10F inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Employer etc. not to share in tips or other gratuities

10G (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), no employer or, in the case of a body corporate, no director or shareholder of an employer may share in tips, any tip pool or in other gratuities redistributed under section 10E.

(2) An employer who is a sole proprietor or a partner in a partnership may share in tips, any tip pool or in other gratuities redistributed under section 10E if he regularly performs, to a substantial degree, the same work performed by—

- (a) some or all of the employees who share in tips, any tip pool, or in such redistribution of other gratuities; or
- (b) employees of other employers in the same industry who commonly receive or share tips or other gratuities.

(3) A director or shareholder of an employer may share in tips, any tip pool or in other gratuities redistributed under section 10E if he regularly performs to a substantial degree the same work performed by—

- (a) some or all of the employees who share in tips, any tip pool, or in such redistribution of other gratuities; or
- (b) employees of other employers in the same industry who commonly receive or share tips or other gratuities.

(4) For the purposes of determining whether work is regularly performed to a substantial degree regard may be given to any guidance as may be so issued, in relation to this section, by the Minister under section 10K.

[Section 10G inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Duty of employer to keep records

10H (1) Where an employer's employees commonly receive other gratuities, the employer shall, with respect to the place of work for which he has responsibility—

- (a) create a record of how all other gratuities have been dealt with pursuant to this Part; and
- (b) maintain that record for a period of three years beginning with the date on which all such other gratuities were paid.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(2) The record under subsection (1) shall include the amount of other gratuities—

- (a) paid to the employer in respect of the place of work; and
- (b) redistributed pursuant to section 10E.

(3) An employer who contravenes this section shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Manager or the Tribunal.

[Section 10H inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Employee's right of access to records

10I (1) An employee to whom section 10H applies shall be entitled to request in writing to his employer, in relation to the employee's place of work, the following information for the period (subject to subsection 3) specified in the request—

- (a) the amount of other gratuities paid to the employer at that place of work; and
- (b) the amount of those other gratuities that the employer—
 - (i) redistributed to the employee pursuant to section 10E;
 - (ii) redistributed to employees pursuant to section 10E and such other persons (as the case may be) pursuant to section 10E as read with section 10G.

(2) Where an employer to whom section 10H applies receives a request pursuant to subsection (1), the employer shall, within a period not exceeding 30 days from the date the request is made, provide the employee with the requested records in respect of the period specified in the request.

(3) An employee may make a request under subsection (1) in respect of a period only if—

- (a) the period is a period of one month or two consecutive months;
- (b) the period begins no more than three years before the date of the request;
- (c) the period ends before the date of the request; and
- (d) the employee worked for the employer at any time during each month that forms part of the request.

(4) An employee may not make more than one request for records under this section in any three month period.

[Section 10I inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Employer to provide policy statement in relation to tips or other gratuities

10J (1) An employer, whose employees commonly receive tips or other gratuities or whose business is in an industry or sector within which employees commonly receive tips

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

or other gratuities, shall ensure, with respect to the place of work for which that employer has responsibility, that—

- (a) there is a clear written policy statement providing for how tips and other gratuities are to be managed, protected and distributed fairly in accordance with this Part;
- (b) the policy statement referred to in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) is made available to all employees of the employer;
 - (ii) is presented to each new employee on the commencement of his employment with the employer; and
 - (iii) where the employer subsequently amends that policy statement, the amended version is made available to all employees;
- (c) procedures are put in place to assist every employee in understanding the policy statement.

(2) The policy statement referred to in subsection (1) must contain the terms set out in Schedule 1A and an employer may consult with employees, trade unions or other representatives (if any) in the establishment of the policy statement.

(3) The Minister may by order amend Schedule 1A.

(4) Section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 shall not apply to an order under subsection (3).

(5) Any employer who contravenes—

- (a) subsection (1)(a) shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Manager or the Tribunal;
- (b) subsection (1)(b) shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Tribunal only.

[Section 10J inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

Minister may issue guidance

10K (1) For the purposes of promoting fairness and transparency in relation to the management, protection, and distribution of tips and other gratuities in accordance with this Part, the Minister may—

- (a) issue guidance and may, from time to time, revise such guidance;
 - (b) publish such guidance so issued or revised in such manner as he considers appropriate.
- (2) The Minister may carry out such consultation as he considers appropriate—
- (a) before issuing any guidance under this section; or
 - (b) unless he considers that it is unnecessary to do so before revising any guidance under this section.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(3) Section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 shall not apply to any guidance issued or revised under this section.

[Section 10K inserted by 2023 : 28 s. 4 effective 1 March 2024]

PART III TIME OFF

Public holidays

11 (1) In this section—

“public holiday” has the meaning given in the Public Holidays Act 1947, but does not include any Sunday which would not otherwise be a public holiday by virtue of that Act; and

“with pay” means pay at the employee’s regular rate of wages.

(2) Subject to this section, an employer shall grant every employee a holiday with pay on each public holiday falling within any period of employment.

(3) Where a public holiday falls on an employee’s rest day, the employer shall grant him a holiday with pay on—

- (a) the working day immediately following the public holiday; or
- (b) such other day as may be agreed by the employer and employee.

(4) Where an employee is required to work on a public holiday, the employer shall—

- (a) pay that employee at a rate at least equal to the overtime rate; or
- (b) pay that employee at his regular rate of wages and grant him a holiday with pay on such other day as may be agreed by the employer and employee.

(5) An employer shall not be obliged to pay an employee in respect of a public holiday if the employee does not work on his working day immediately preceding and his working day immediately following the public holiday, unless he was on annual leave or sick leave on such a day.

(6) This section shall not apply where the employer and employee agree in writing otherwise.

[Section 11 subsections (1) and (6) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 8 effective 1 June 2021]

Vacation leave

12 (1) An employee shall be entitled to a period of two weeks annual vacation leave after he has completed—

- (a) the first year of continuous employment; and

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(b) each subsequent year of continuous employment,
but such periods of vacation are not cumulative.

(1A) Without prejudice to subsection (1), an employee who has completed the first six months of continuous employment shall be entitled to a period of one week's vacation leave, but where such leave (or any part thereof) is taken prior to the completion of the first year of continuous employment, the leave so taken shall be deducted from the period of annual vacation leave to which the employee is entitled pursuant to subsection (1)(a).

(2) An employer shall, where practicable, grant an employee's request to take his vacation leave at a particular time, subject to the reasonable requirements of the business and to requests for vacation by other employees.

(3) An employee shall be entitled to a week's wages for each week of his vacation which shall, where so requested by the employee and where practicable, be paid in advance of the vacation.

[Section 12 amended by 2019 : 39 s. 2 effective 1 January 2020]

Public duties

13 (1) Subject to the requirements of the business, an employer shall, where practicable, permit an employee to take such time off during his working hours as is reasonable in the circumstances to attend a meeting of any of the following bodies of which he is a member, or to do anything approved by the body for the purpose of discharging its functions—

- (a) any Government Board;
- (b) the Royal Bermuda Regiment;
- (c) the Reserve Police;
- (d) the Senate or House of Assembly;
- (e) such other body as may be prescribed.

(2) An employer shall permit an employee who has been summoned for jury service or summoned to attend court as a witness to take such time off during his working hours as is necessary to discharge his duty.

(3) An employer shall permit an employee to take such time off during his working hours as is necessary in order for him to vote in a parliamentary election, within the meaning of the Parliamentary Election Act 1978.

(4) Subject to section 46 of the Defence Act 1965, an employee who has completed at least one year of continuous employment is entitled to be paid at his normal hourly wage for time taken off under this section; but where the employee receives any payment in connection with his duties, the employer shall be entitled to deduct the equivalent amount from any wages payable by virtue of this subsection.

[Section 13 subsection (4) amended by 2006:12 s.4 effective 8 June 2006; Section 13 subsection (1)(b) amended by 2015 : 48 s. 25 effective 1 November 2017]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Sick leave

14 (1) An employee who has completed at least one year of continuous employment shall be entitled to be paid at his normal hourly wage in respect of eight days per year when he is unable to work due to sickness or injury.

(2) An employee shall not be entitled to be paid in respect of a period of two or more consecutive days unless, where his employer so requests, the employee provides the employer with a certificate from a registered medical practitioner certifying that the practitioner has examined the employee and determined that he is unable to work due to sickness or injury.

Ante-natal care

15 (1) An employee who is pregnant and who has, on the advice of a registered medical practitioner, made an appointment to receive ante-natal care, is entitled to take time off during her working hours to attend the appointment.

(2) An employee is not entitled to take time off under this section unless, where her employer so requests, she produces a certificate from a registered medical practitioner confirming that she is pregnant, and an appointment card or some other document showing that the appointment has been made.

(3) An employee is entitled to be paid at her normal hourly wage for time taken off under this section.

[Section 15 subsection (3) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 9 effective 1 June 2021]

Maternity leave

16 (1) An employee shall be entitled to maternity leave if she—

- (a) provides her employer with a certificate of a registered medical practitioner certifying that she is pregnant and specifying the estimated date of the birth; and
- (b) submits to the employer an application for maternity leave at least four weeks before the day she specifies as the day on which she intends to commence her leave.

(2) The period of maternity leave shall be—

- (a) in relation to an employee who has completed at least one year of continuous employment or will have done so by the expected date of delivery, a period of 13 weeks paid leave;
- (b) in any other case, a period of 13 weeks unpaid leave.

(3) An employee who has taken a period of maternity leave shall notify her employer at least two weeks in advance of the date on which she intends to resume work, and she shall be entitled to resume work—

- (a) in the position she occupied at the time the leave commenced; or

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (b) where that position no longer exists, in a comparable position with not less than the same wages and benefits she was receiving before the maternity leave, and with no loss of seniority.

(4) An employee who fails to notify her employer in accordance with subsection (3) shall be taken to have terminated her employment.

[Section 16 subsection (2) amended by 2019 : 39 s. 3 effective 1 January 2020]

Paternity leave

16A (1) An employee shall be entitled to be absent from work for the purpose of caring for a child or supporting the child's mother (hereinafter referred to as "paternity leave") if he—

- (a) is the father of the child; and
- (b) submits to his employer—
 - (i) a certificate of a registered medical practitioner certifying that the child's mother is pregnant and the estimated date of the child's birth; and
 - (ii) an application for paternity leave at least four weeks before the day he specifies as the day on which he intends to commence his leave.

(2) The period of paternity leave shall be—

- (a) in relation to an employee who has completed at least one year of continuous employment or will have done so by the expected date of birth of the child, a period of five consecutive days paid leave;
- (b) in any other case a period of five consecutive days unpaid leave.

(3) Paternity leave may only be taken once during a 12 month period beginning with the date on which the child is born and such leave shall be taken within a period not exceeding 14 weeks from that date.

[Section 16A inserted by 2019 : 39 s. 4 effective 1 January 2020]

Bereavement leave

17 (1) In this section, any reference to a person's immediate family shall be taken to be a reference to—

- (a) his spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent, great-grandparent, grandchild or great-grandchild; or
- (b) any other person with whom he was sharing a household (other than by reason only of a landlord-tenant or employer-employee relationship).

(2) An employer shall grant to an employee a leave of absence of up to—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (a) three consecutive days on the death of a member of the employee's immediate family; or
- (b) five consecutive days in order to attend the funeral of a member of the employee's immediate family overseas.

(3) An employee shall advise the employer as soon as possible after the death in question of his intention to take bereavement leave under this section and of the anticipated commencement date and duration of the leave.

(4) An employer shall not be obliged to pay an employee in respect of a period of bereavement leave.

[Section 17 subsection (1)(a) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 10 effective 1 June 2021]

PART IV

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Termination of employment

18 (1) An employee's contract of employment shall not be terminated by an employer unless there is a valid reason for termination connected with—

- (a) the ability, performance or conduct of the employee; or
- (b) the operational requirements of the employer's business.

(1A) An employee's contract of employment shall not be terminated by an employer—

- (a) pursuant to subsection (1)(a), unless the notice requirements under section 20 and the provisions under section 26 or 27 have been complied with;
- (b) pursuant to subsection (1)(b), unless the notice requirement under section 20 has been complied with.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where an employee is employed—

- (a) for a fixed period of time which has expired;
- (b) for the duration of a project which is complete.

(3) An employee's contract of employment may be terminated by the employee for any reason in accordance with the notice requirements of section 20.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (1A), an employee's contract of employment may be terminated by the employer without notice, for serious misconduct, under section 25.

(5) Where an employee's contract of employment is terminated, his employer shall pay any wages and other remuneration and benefits which accrued at the date of termination and such payment shall be made within seven days of termination or at the next interval at which the employee would have been paid had the contract of employment not been terminated, whichever period is the longer.

[Section 18 subsections (1) and (1A) substituted for (1), and subsection (4) inserted, by 2006:12 s.5 effective 8 June 2006; Section 18 subsection (1A) repealed and replaced, and subsection (5) inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 11 effective 1 June 2021]

Probationary period

19 (1) Subject to this section, a new or promoted employee may be required to serve a probationary period of not more than six months commencing from the date of his employment or promotion.

(2) An employee who is serving a probationary period shall be entitled to receive from his employer a review of the employee's performance on or before the completion of one half of the probationary period.

(3) An employer may, before the expiration of the probationary period referred to in subsection (1) and after conducting a review under subsection (2), extend an employee's probationary period for a period not exceeding three months.

(4) During the probationary period (including any period of extension under subsection (3)), a contract of employment may be terminated without notice—

(a) by the employer for any reason relating to the employee's performance review, performance, conduct, or operational requirements of the employer's business; or

(b) by the employee for any reason.

(5) In the application of this section to an employee who during a period of continuous employment is promoted (and without prejudice to section 27), subsection (4) shall not apply.

(6) The six-month and three-month periods referred to in subsections (1) and (3), respectively, shall not apply to—

(a) customs officers;

(b) fire officers;

(c) police officers;

(d) prison officers; and

(e) such other classes of employee as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section.

[Section 19 repealed and replaced by 2021 : 2 s. 12 effective 1 June 2021]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Notice periods

20 (1) A contract of employment may be terminated in accordance with this Part by the employer on giving the following minimum periods of notice in writing (“the statutory notice periods”)—

- (a) one week, where the employee is paid each week;
- (b) two weeks, where the employee is paid every two weeks;
- (c) one month, in any other case.

(2) The statutory notice periods shall not apply—

- (a) where the employer is entitled to summarily dismiss an employee under this Act;
- (b) where the employee has reached the age at which he is required to retire, pursuant to his contract or otherwise;
- (c) where periods of notice are regulated by contract, by collective agreement or otherwise by agreement between the employer and employee;
- (d) where the giving of longer periods of notice is customary given the nature and functions of the work performed by the employee.

(3) A notice of termination shall not be given by an employer during an employee’s absence—

- (a) on vacation leave, maternity leave, paternity leave or bereavement leave;
- (b) on sick leave, unless the period of sick leave extends beyond six weeks.

(4) An employee shall give his employer the statutory notice period to terminate his contract of employment unless—

- (a) the employer waives his right to notice;
- (b) a longer notice period applies by contract, by collective agreement or otherwise by agreement between the employer and employee; or
- (c) the giving of longer periods of notice is customary given the nature and functions of the work performed by the employee.

[Section 20 subsection (3)(a) amended by 2019 : 39 s. 5 effective 1 January 2020; Section 20 subsection (3)(b) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 13 effective 1 June 2021]

Payment in lieu of notice

21 (1) In lieu of providing notice of termination of employment in accordance with section 20, an employer may, at his discretion, pay an employee a sum equal to the wages and other remuneration and confer on him all other benefits that would have been due up to the expiry of any required period of notice.

(2) Where an employee terminates his contract of employment without notice in circumstances in which notice was required, and his employer has not waived the right to notice, the employee shall be entitled only to such wages and other remuneration which accrued at the date of termination.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt any payment made to an employee pursuant to this section shall be made in accordance with section 18(5).

[Section 21 subsection (3) inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 14 effective 1 June 2021]

Certificate of termination

22 On the termination of a contract of employment, an employer, if so requested by his employee, shall provide the employee with a certificate of termination indicating—

- (a) the name and address of the employer;
- (b) the nature of the employer's business;
- (c) the length of the employee's period of continuous employment;
- (d) the capacity in which the employee was employed;
- (e) the wages and other remuneration payable at the date of termination of the contract;
- (f) where the employee so requests, the reason for the termination.

Severance allowance

23 (1) Subject to subsection (7), on termination of his employment, an employee who has completed at least one year of continuous employment shall be entitled to be paid severance allowance by his employer.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the amount of severance allowance payable to an employee shall be no less than the equivalent of—

- (a) two weeks wages, for each completed year of continuous employment up to the first ten years;
- (b) three weeks wages for each completed year of continuous employment thereafter;

up to a maximum of 32 weeks wages.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), termination of employment means termination by reason of—

- (a) redundancy;
- (b) the winding up or insolvency of an employer;
- (c) the death of an employer;
- (d) the death of an employee from an occupational disease or accident resulting from that employment.

(4) Severance allowance is not payable where an employee—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (a) unreasonably refuses to accept an offer of re-employment by the employer at the same place of work under no less favourable terms than he was employed immediately prior to the termination;
 - (b) is employed by a partnership and his employment ceases on the dissolution of the partnership and—
 - (i) he enters into employment with one or more of the partners immediately after the dissolution; under no less favourable terms than he was employed immediately prior to the dissolution, or
 - (ii) he unreasonably refuses to accept an offer of re-employment by any of the partners under no less favourable terms than he was employed immediately prior to the termination;
 - (c) is employed by an employer who dies and—
 - (i) he enters into employment with the personal representative, widow, widower or any heir of the deceased employer immediately after the death, or
 - (ii) he unreasonably refuses to accept an offer of re-employment by such a person under no less favourable terms than he was employed immediately prior to the death.
- (5) Where the contract of employment is terminated, pursuant to subsection (3) (d), by reason of the death of the employee—
- (a) the severance allowance shall be paid to such person as the employee may have nominated in writing or, in the absence of such a person, to his estate representative; and
 - (b) the employer shall be entitled to set off any life insurance which has been provided to the employee under his contract of employment.
- (6) The payment of severance allowance under this section shall not affect an employee's entitlement—
- (a) to payment in lieu of notice under section 21; or
 - (b) to compensation under Part V.
- (7) The Minister, after consultation with the Labour Advisory Council, by regulations subject to the affirmative resolution procedure, may exempt specified types of employment from the payment of severance allowance where the Minister is satisfied on the application of an industry that there are exceptional circumstances to justify an exemption.

[Section 23 subsection (1) amended, and (7) inserted, by 2006:12 s.6 effective 8 June 2006; Section 23 amended by 2021 : 2 s. 15 effective 1 June 2021; Section 23 subsection (2) amended by 2024 : 37 s. 2 effective 18 December 2024]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Misconduct etc

Disciplinary action

24 (1) An employer shall be entitled to take disciplinary action, including giving an employee a written warning or suspending an employee, when it is reasonable to do so in all the circumstances.

(2) No employer may impose a fine or other monetary penalty on an employee except in cases where a requirement of restitution would be appropriate and where agreed on between the parties.

(3) In deciding what is reasonable for the purposes of subsection (1), regard shall be had to—

- (a) the nature of the conduct in question;
- (b) the employee's duties;
- (c) the terms of the contract of employment;
- (d) any damage caused by the employee's conduct;
- (e) the employee's length of service and his previous conduct;
- (f) the employee's circumstances;
- (g) the penalty imposed by the employer;
- (h) the procedure followed by the employer; and
- (i) the practice of the employer in similar situations.

(4) A complaint that disciplinary action is unreasonable may be made to an inspector under section 36.

Summary dismissal for serious misconduct

25 An employer is entitled to dismiss without notice or payment of any severance allowance an employee who is guilty of serious misconduct—

- (a) which is directly related to the employment relationship; or
- (b) which has a detrimental effect on the employer's business, such that it would be unreasonable to expect the employer to continue the employment relationship.

Termination for repeated misconduct

26 (1) Where an employee is guilty of misconduct which is directly related to the employment relationship but which does not fall within section 25, the employer may give him a written warning setting out the misconduct complained of and appropriate instructions as to how to improve his conduct.

(2) If, within a six-month period, an employee is guilty on two separate occasions of misconduct falling within subsection (1) and receives (in respect of the first occasion of misconduct) a written warning in accordance with subsection (1), the employer may, after the second further occasion of misconduct, terminate the employee's contract of employment without notice or the payment of any severance allowance.

(3) If, within a 12-month period, an employee is guilty on four separate occasions of misconduct falling within subsection (1) and receives (in respect of the first three occasions of misconduct) written warnings in accordance with subsection (1), the employer may, after the fourth further occasion of misconduct, terminate the employee's contract of employment without notice or the payment of any severance allowance.

(4) An employer shall be deemed to have waived his right to terminate under subsection (2) or (3) if he does not do so within 14 days after having knowledge of—

- (a) the second further occasion of misconduct referred to in subsection (2); or
- (b) the fourth further occasion of misconduct referred to in subsection (3).

[Section 26 repealed and replaced by 2021 : 2 s. 16 effective 1 June 2021]

Termination for unsatisfactory performance

27 (1) Where an employee is not performing his duties in a satisfactory manner, the employer may give him a written warning setting out the unsatisfactory performance complained of and appropriate instructions as to how to improve his performance.

(2) If the employee does not, during the period of six months beginning with the date of the written warning, demonstrate that he is able to perform his duties in a satisfactory manner and is in fact doing so, the employer may terminate his contract of employment without notice or the payment of any severance allowance.

(3) An employer shall be deemed to have waived his right to terminate under subsection (2) if he does not do so within 14 days after the expiry of the six-month period referred to in that subsection.

[Section 27 subsection (1) amended, and subsection (3) inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 17 effective 1 June 2021]

Unfair dismissal

Unfair dismissal

28 (1) The following do not constitute valid reasons for dismissal or the imposition of disciplinary action—

- (a) an employee's race, sex, religion, colour, ethnic origin, national extraction, social origin, political opinion, disability or marital status;
- (b) an employee's age, subject to any other enactment or any relevant collective agreement regarding retirement;
- (c) any reason connected with an employee's pregnancy, unless it involves absence from work which exceeds allocated leave entitlement;

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (d) an employee's trade union activity;
- (e) an employee's temporary absence from work because of sickness or injury, unless it occurs frequently and exceeds allocated leave entitlement;
- (f) an employee's absence from work for any of the reasons mentioned in section 13 (public duties), or due to service as a volunteer fire officer;
- (g) an employee who removes himself from a work situation which he reasonably believes presents an imminent and serious danger to life or health;
- (h) an employee's participation in any industrial action which takes place in conformity with the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021;
- (i) the filing of a complaint or the participation in proceedings against an employer involving alleged violations of this Act;
- (j) the making of a protected disclosure under section 29A.

(2) The dismissal of an employee is unfair if it is based on any of the grounds listed in subsection (1).

[Section 28 subsection (1)(j) inserted by 2011 : 35 s. 7 effective 21 October 2011; Section 28 subsection (1)(h) amended by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Constructive dismissal

29 (1) An employee is entitled to terminate his contract of employment without notice where the employer's conduct has made it unreasonable to expect the employee to continue the employment relationship, having regard to the employee's duties, length of service and circumstances.

(2) An employee who terminates his contract pursuant to subsection (1) shall be deemed to have been unfairly dismissed for the purposes of this Act.

Whistle-blowers

29A (1) A person makes a protected disclosure if, in good faith, he notifies a listed person that he has reasonable grounds to believe—

- (a) that his employer or any other employee has committed, is committing, or is about to commit, a criminal offence or breach of any statutory obligation related to the employer's business;
- (b) that he himself has been directed, either by his employer or by one of his supervisors, to commit such a criminal offence or breach of statutory obligation; or
- (c) that information tending to show any matter falling within paragraph (a) or (b) has been, is being, or is likely to be, altered, erased, destroyed or concealed by any person.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the “listed persons” are—
- (a) the person’s employer, manager or supervisor;
 - (b) a police officer;
 - (c) the Collector of Customs;
 - (d) the Chief Fire Officer, as defined in section 2 of the Bermuda Fire and Rescue Service Act 1982;
 - (e) the Chief Medical Officer, as defined in section 2 of the Public Health Act 1949;
 - (f) the Chief Environmental Health Officer of the Department of Health;
 - (fa) the Director of the Department of Health;
 - (g) a Safety and Health Officer appointed for the purposes of the administration of the Occupational Safety and Health Act 1982;
 - (h) the Auditor General, appointed under section 88 of the Constitution;
 - (i) the Ombudsman, appointed under section 93A of the Constitution;
 - (j) the Accountant-General, appointed under section 4 of the Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969;
 - (k) the Director of Project Management and Procurement, appointed under section 32B of the Public Treasury (Administration and Payments) Act 1969;
 - (l) [repealed by 2012 : 25 s. 4]
 - (m) the Director of Internal Audit, appointed under section 3 of the Internal Audit Act 2010;
 - (n) the Chief Immigration Officer of the Department of Immigration;
 - (o) the Registrar-General, appointed under section 2 of the Registration (Births and Deaths) Act 1949;
 - (oa) the Land Title Registrar;
 - (p) the Charity Commissioners for Bermuda, continued under section 7 of the Charities Act 2014;
 - (q) the Bermuda Health Council, established under section 3 of the Bermuda Health Council Act 2004;
 - (r) the Manager or an inspector (designated under section 34 of this Act).

(3) A person making a protected disclosure may notify whichever of the persons listed in subsection (2) appears to him to be the most appropriate person to notify in the circumstances.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(4) Any provision of a contract of employment, or other agreement relating to the terms of employment of a person, shall be void insofar as it purports to preclude a person from making a protected disclosure.

(5) The Minister may, by order subject to the affirmative resolution procedure, amend subsection (2) so as to add or remove persons from the list.

[Section 29A inserted by 2011 : 35 s. 7 effective 21 October 2011; subsection (2)(l) repealed by 2012 : 25 s. 4 effective 3 July 2012; subsection (2)(n) inserted by 2013 : 35 s. 8 effective 1 April 2014; subsections (2)(o) - (2)(q) inserted by BR 99 / 2014 para. 2 effective 20 December 2014; Section 29A subsection (2)(oa) inserted by 2017 : 47 s. 20 effective 2 July 2018; Section 29A amended by BR 39 / 2019 order 2 effective 25 March 2019; Section 29A subsection (2)(r) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 2 effective 1 June 2021]

Redundancy etc

Termination for redundancy

30 (1) An employer may terminate the employment of an employee whose position is redundant.

(2) An employee is redundant for the purposes of this Act, where the termination of his employment is, or is part of, a reduction in the employer's work force which is a direct result of any of the conditions of redundancy.

(3) The following are the conditions of redundancy—

- (a) the modernisation, mechanisation or automation of all or part of the employer's business;
- (b) the discontinuance of all or part of the business;
- (c) the sale or other disposal of the business;
- (d) the reorganisation of the business;
- (e) the reduction in business which has been necessitated by economic conditions, contraction in the volume of work or sales, reduced demand or surplus inventory;
- (f) the impossibility or impracticality of carrying on the business at the usual rate or at all due to—
 - (i) shortage of materials;
 - (ii) mechanical breakdown;
 - (iii) act of God; or
 - (iv) other circumstances beyond the control of the employer.

(4) Before terminating the employment of an employee for redundancy, the employer shall, not less than 14 days before giving notice in accordance with section 20—

- (a) inform the employee and the employee's trade union or other representative (if any) of the following information—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (i) the existence of the relevant condition of redundancy;
 - (ii) the reasons for the termination contemplated;
 - (iii) the number and categories of employees likely to be affected; and
 - (iv) the period over which such termination is likely to be carried out; and
- (b) consult the employee and the employee's trade union or other representative (if any) on—
- (i) the possible measures that could be taken to avert or minimise the adverse effects of such redundancy on employment; and
 - (ii) the possible measures that could be taken to mitigate the adverse effects of any termination on the employees concerned.

[Section 30 subsection (1) amended by 2006:12 s.7 effective 8 June 2006; Section 30 subsection (4) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 18 effective 1 June 2021]

Effect of sham sale

- 31 (1) Where one of the purposes of a sale or other disposition of a business is—
- (a) to enable an employer to avoid any of his obligations under this Act; or
 - (b) to deprive any employee of his rights under this Act, all of the employer's obligations under this Act are binding on the person acquiring the business.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to restrict an employer from making a bona fide sale of his business.

Lay off

- 32 (1) An employer shall not lay off an employee except in accordance with this Act.

(1A) Before laying off an employee, the employer shall as soon as practicable inform the employee and the employee's trade union or other representative (if any) of the following information—

- (a) the existence of the relevant condition of redundancy;
- (b) the reasons for the lay off contemplated; and
- (c) the period over which such lay off is likely to be carried out.

(2) Where any of the conditions of redundancy exist, an employer may lay off an employee for a continuous period not exceeding four months.

(3) Where the lay off continues for a period which exceeds four months, it shall be deemed to be a termination for redundancy pursuant to section 30.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(4) References in this section to a period of four months do not include the period from 1 April 2020 to 30 June 2020 (during which there was a state of emergency in Bermuda).

[Section 32 subsection (4) inserted by 2020 : 29 s. 2 effective 30 June 2020; Section 32 subsection (1A) inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 19 effective 1 June 2021]

Winding up

33 (1) The winding up or insolvency of an employer's business shall cause the contract of employment of an employee to terminate one month from the date of winding up or the appointment of a receiver, unless the contract is otherwise terminated under this Part.

(2) This section shall not apply where, notwithstanding the winding up or insolvency, the business continues to operate.

(3) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary to satisfy the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the employer's business, but notwithstanding the priority conferred on certain debts by section 236 of the Companies Act 1981 or any other enactment, on the winding up of an employer's business or the appointment of a receiver, the claims of an employee to the—

- (a) payment for vacation accrued but not taken;
- (b) payment for wages earned but not paid; and
- (c) severance allowance as calculated in accordance with section 23(2) up to a maximum of thirty-two weeks' wages, shall have priority over all other claims including claims of the Crown.

(4) The debts mentioned in subsection (3)(a), (b) and (c) shall rank equally among themselves and be paid in full, unless the assets of the employer's business available for payment of general creditors are insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions.

[Section 33 subsections (3) and (4) substituted for (3) by 2006:12 s.8 effective 8 June 2006; Section 33 subsection (3)(c) amended by 2024 : 37 s. 3 effective 18 December 2024]

PART V ENFORCEMENT

Inspectors

34 The Minister shall designate persons to be inspectors for the purpose of the enforcement of this Act and shall give every such person a certificate of his designation signed by the Minister and the person so designated.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Employment Tribunal

35 [Repealed by 2021 : 7 s.99 & Sch. 7]

[Section 35 subsection (3) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 23 effective 1 June 2021; Section 35 repealed by 2021 : 7 s.99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Right to complain to inspector

36 (1) An employee shall have the right to make a complaint in writing to an inspector that his employer has, within the preceding six months, failed to comply with any provision of this Act.

(2) A complaint may be made under this section by a trade union or other representative group on behalf of an employee.

(3) Where a group of employees having the same or substantially the same interests has a complaint pursuant to this Act, one complaint may be made in a representative capacity.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a complaint shall not include any matter which was the subject of a labour dispute as defined in the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021, which has been settled by the Manager or otherwise determined under the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021.

[Section 36 subsection (1) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 20 effective 1 June 2021; Section 36 subsection (4) inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Inquiry by inspector

37 (1) Where an inspector—

- (a) receives a complaint under section 36; or
- (b) has reasonable grounds to believe that an employer has failed to comply with any provision of this Act, the inspector shall, within 14 days of receiving the complaint or having such belief, inquire into the matter.

(2) If, for the purposes of an inquiry under this Act, an inspector requires information which the employer, employee or any other person is likely to be able to supply, the inspector may, by notice in writing, require that person—

- (a) to supply that information; and
- (b) to produce such documents as may be specified and permit the inspector to take copies, on such date or within such period of time as may be specified in the notice.

(3) After making such inquiries as he considers necessary in the circumstances, the inspector shall, subject to subsection (5), endeavour to conciliate the parties and to effect a settlement by all means at his disposal.

(4) Where the inspector—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (a) has reasonable grounds to believe that an employer has failed to comply with any provision of this Act; but
- (b) is unable to effect a settlement under subsection (3),

he shall report the matter to the Manager who may refer the complaint to the Tribunal or, in the case of a contravention for which a civil penalty may be imposed by the Manager, either impose a civil penalty subject to section 37A or refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(5) Where, in relation to an employer, any relevant grievance procedure is established (whether under a contract of employment, collective agreement or otherwise) to deal with employees' complaints, then unless and until there has been a failure to obtain a settlement by means of that procedure—

- (a) the inspector shall not attempt to settle the complaint under this section; and
- (b) the Manager shall not refer the complaint to the Tribunal, except with the consent of all the parties.

(6) Without prejudice to this section or any other provision of law, where the inspector, in making inquiries under this section, is of the opinion that there is evidence of a contravention of, or breach of duty under, this Act or any other Act for which another authority is responsible, he shall notify the appropriate authority and refer the matter for further consideration.

[Section 37 subsection (1) amended by 2021 : 2 s. 21 effective 1 June 2021; Section 37 amended by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Manager may impose civil penalties; procedure and appeals

37A (1) The Manager may subject to this section, impose a civil penalty on any person who without reasonable excuse contravenes a provision under Part II or Part IIA and for which a civil penalty is liable to be imposed.

(2) A civil penalty imposed by the Manager shall be of such amount as the Manager, in his discretion, thinks appropriate but shall not exceed $5,000.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) “appropriate” means effective, proportionate and dissuasive.

(4) Where the Manager proposes to impose a civil penalty on a person he shall give the person notice (a “warning notice”) of—

- (a) the amount of the penalty;
- (b) the reasons for imposing the penalty; and
- (c) the right to make representations to the Manager within seven days of the date of such notice.

(5) If after considering any representations, the Manager decides to impose a civil penalty on a person, he must give the person notice (a “decision notice”) of—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (a) his decision to impose the penalty;
- (b) the amount of the penalty;
- (c) the reasons for his decision; and
- (d) the right to appeal pursuant to subsection (6) within 21 days of such notice.

(6) A person may appeal a civil penalty imposed under this section by giving notice in writing to the Manager stating the grounds of appeal and the Manager, upon receiving such notice within the time allowed by subsection (5)(d), shall in writing refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(7) The Tribunal shall determine an appeal referred to it under subsection (6) by confirming, revoking or modifying the civil penalty as the Tribunal sees fit.

(8) A person upon whom a penalty is imposed under subsection (5) who does not appeal in accordance with subsection (6) shall either—

- (a) pay the penalty; or
- (b) pay a portion of the penalty and agree, with the Manager, to a payment schedule for the remainder.

(9) A civil penalty appealed against under subsection (6) shall not have effect—

- (a) until the end of the period within which the appeal can be brought; and
- (b) if such an appeal is brought, until it is determined or withdrawn.

(10) Any civil penalty imposed under this section—

- (a) shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund; or
- (b) if unpaid may be recovered as a debt owing in any court of competent jurisdiction.

[Section 37A inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021; Section 37A subsection (1) amended by 2023 : 28 s. 5 effective 1 March 2024]

Hearing of complaints by Tribunal

38 (1) [Repealed by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7]

(2) In any claim arising out of the dismissal of an employee it shall be for the employer to prove the reason for the dismissal, and if he fails to do so there shall be a conclusive presumption that the dismissal was unfair.

(3) Where the employee claims constructive dismissal it shall be for him to prove the reason which made continuation of the employment relationship unreasonable.

[Section 38 subsection (1) repealed by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Remedies: general

39 (1) Where the Tribunal determines that an employer has contravened a provision of this Act, it shall notify the employer and employee in writing of the reasons for its determination and shall order the employer—

- (a) to do any specified act which, in the opinion of the Tribunal, constitutes full compliance with this Act;
- (b) pay to the employee not later than such date as may be specified in the notice, the amount which the Tribunal has determined represents any unpaid wages or other benefits owing to the employee.

(2) Where the Tribunal determines that an employer has not contravened a provision of this Act, it shall notify the employer and employee in writing of the reasons for its determination.

Remedies: unfair dismissal

40 (1) If the Tribunal upholds an employee's complaint of unfair dismissal, it shall award one or more of the following remedies—

- (a) an order for reinstatement, whereby the employee is to be treated in all respects as if he had never been dismissed;
- (b) an order for re-engagement, whereby the employee is to be engaged in work comparable to that in which he was engaged prior to dismissal, or other reasonably suitable work, from such date and on such terms as may be specified in the order or agreed by the parties;
- (c) a compensation order in accordance with subsection (4).

(2) In deciding which remedy to award, the Tribunal shall first consider the possibility of making an order of reinstatement or re-engagement, taking into account the wishes of the parties and the circumstances in which the dismissal took place, including the extent (if any) to which the employee caused or contributed to his dismissal.

(3) Where the Tribunal finds that the employee engaged in misconduct notwithstanding the unlawful nature of the dismissal, it may include a disciplinary penalty as a term of the order for reinstatement or re-engagement.

(4) A compensation order shall, subject to subsection (5), be of such amount as the Tribunal considers just and equitable in all the circumstances, having regard—

- (a) to the loss sustained by the employee in consequence of the dismissal in so far as that loss is attributable to action taken by the employer; and
- (b) the extent to which the employee caused or contributed to the dismissal.

(5) The amount of compensation ordered to be paid shall be not less than—

- (a) three weeks wages for each completed year of continuous employment, for employees with no more than two complete years of continuous employment;

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (b) four weeks wages for each completed year of continuous employment, in other cases,

up to a maximum of 26 weeks wages.

Report by Tribunal

43 [Repealed by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7]

[Section 43 repealed by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Offences

44 (1) A person who—

- (a) fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with a requirement under section 37(2);
- (b) in purported compliance with a requirement under section 37(2), supplies information which he knows is false in a material particular; or
- (c) fails to comply with an order of the Tribunal made under this Part, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000.

(2) Where an offence under this Act which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent, knowledge or connivance of a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person who is purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate commits that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

PART VA

EMPLOYMENT AND LABOUR RELATIONS TRIBUNAL

Application, establishment and powers

Interpretation and application of Part

44A (1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

“award” means any determination, order, declaration or other decision made by the Tribunal in respect of the hearing of any matter before it;

“chairman” and “deputy chairman” mean the chairman and deputy chairman of the Tribunal as selected under paragraph 10(1)(a) and (b) of Schedule 2;

“difference” means a difference to which section 73 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021 applies;

“employee” includes a worker within the meaning of section 2 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 2021; and “oath” includes an affirmation and declaration.

(2) This Part applies in relation to complaints, labour disputes, differences, conflicts or such other matters referred to the Tribunal under the Employment and Labour Code.

[Section 44A inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Employment and Labour Relations Tribunal

44B (1) The Employment and Labour Relations Tribunal is hereby established.

(2) The Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine (including by way of arbitration) complaints, labour disputes, differences, conflicts and other matters referred to it under the Employment and Labour Code.

(3) Schedule 2 shall have effect with respect to the appointment of the panel of members to serve on the Tribunal, and the constitution of and proceedings before the Tribunal.

[Section 44B inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

General powers

44C (1) Without prejudice to any other powers conferred upon it under the Employment and Labour Code, the Tribunal may—

- (a) proceed to hear and determine any matter in the absence of any party who has been duly summoned to appear before the Tribunal and has failed to do so;
- (b) generally give all such directions and do all such things as are necessary or expedient for the expeditious and just hearing and determination of a matter before the Tribunal.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of its powers under subsection (1), the Tribunal may award the payment of compensation to an employee where the employee cannot be re-instated or re-employed in his former position; and the compensation may be sued for and be recoverable by the employee as a civil debt in the Supreme Court or in a court of summary jurisdiction.

[Section 44C inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

Power to obtain information

44D (1) For the purpose of dealing with any matter referred to it under the Employment and Labour Code, the Tribunal may, by writing under the hand of the chairman—

- (a) require any person to furnish, in writing or otherwise, such particulars in relation to the matter as the Tribunal may specify; and
- (b) require a person to attend before the Tribunal and give evidence on oath or otherwise, or produce documents, and, subject to this Act, shall not be bound by any rule of evidence in civil or criminal proceedings.

(2) Any person who—

- (a) fails without reasonable excuse to furnish particulars in compliance with a requirement under subsection (1);
- (b) fails without reasonable excuse to attend before the Tribunal in compliance with such a requirement; or
- (c) when in attendance before the Tribunal, refuses to take an oath, or to produce a document or give evidence, in compliance with such a requirement, shall be liable to a civil penalty as may be imposed by the Tribunal.

(3) But a person shall not be liable to a civil penalty for refusing to answer any question or to produce any document which he could not be required to answer or produce in proceedings before a court of law in Bermuda, or for failing or refusing to answer any question or produce any document which is not relevant to the matters in issue.

(4) Any person who—

- (a) threatens, intimidates or restrains;
- (b) uses violence to or inflicts injury on;
- (c) causes or procures violence, damage, loss or disadvantage to;
- (d) causes or procures the punishment of or the loss of employment of; or
- (e) penalizes or otherwise discriminates against,

a person for or on account of his having appeared or being about to appear before the Tribunal, commits an offence punishable on summary conviction to a fine of $5,000 or to imprisonment for six months or both.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt the powers conferred on the Tribunal by this section can be exercised either on its own volition or on the application of a party.

(6) In this section—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

“injury” includes injury to a person in respect of his person, business, occupation, employment or other source of income, and includes any actionable wrong; and

“intimidate” means to cause in the mind of a person a reasonable apprehension of injury to him or to any member of his family or to any of his dependants or of violence or damage to any person or property.

[Section 44D inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Power to exclude public

44E (1) Proceedings of the Tribunal shall be open to the public but the Tribunal may with the consent of both parties exclude the public or any representative of the press where it considers it necessary or desirable to protect the privacy of parties to a hearing.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), whenever any representatives of the press are present at any such proceedings, and not otherwise, a fair and accurate report or summary of the proceedings including the evidence adduced at such proceedings may be published.

(3) But no comment shall be published in respect of the proceedings or of any evidence adduced at such proceedings until the decision of the Tribunal has been made public in accordance with section 44F.

(4) Any person who publishes any report on, or comment in respect of any proceedings before the Tribunal other than as authorised by this section shall be liable to a civil penalty.

[Section 44E inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Decisions and Awards

Notification and publication of award

44F (1) With respect to the hearing of any matter before the Tribunal, the parties to such hearing shall be notified by the chairman of the award made by the Tribunal within 30 days of the conclusion of the hearing but—

- (a) where the chairman fails to notify the parties, the deputy chairman shall, within 10 days thereafter notify the parties; or
- (b) where the deputy chairman fails to comply with paragraph (a), the remaining member of the Tribunal (as selected under paragraph 10(1)(c) of Schedule 2) shall, within five days thereafter, notify the parties.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the Tribunal shall notify the Minister of the award and the Minister shall, not later than 90 days after the conclusion of the hearing before it and subject to this section, cause the award to be made public.

(3) If any party to the proceedings reasonably wishes to conceal any matter, including the fact that he was such a party, the Tribunal shall—

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

- (a) give directions as to the action that shall be taken to conceal that matter in the publication of such award; or
- (b) if it considers that an award published in accordance with directions given under paragraph (a) would be likely to reveal that matter, direct that no such award be published until after the end of a period not exceeding one year, as it considers appropriate.

(4) There shall not be included in any publication so authorised by the Minister any information obtained by the Tribunal in the course of the hearing of any matter as to any trade union or to any individual business (whether carried on by an individual, firm or company) which is not available otherwise than through evidence given at the hearing, except with the consent of the secretary of the trade union or of the individual, firm or company in question.

[Section 44F inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Award to require concurrence

44G Without prejudice to section 44F, an award made by the Tribunal shall be made by all the members of such Tribunal, if they are in agreement or, if such members are not in agreement, then by the majority.

[Section 44G inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Award of Tribunal not to conflict with any Act

44H Where any matter referred to the Tribunal involves questions as to wages, or as to hours of work, or otherwise as to terms or conditions of or affecting employment which are regulated by any Act under the Employment and Labour Code or by any other Act, the Tribunal shall not make any award which is inconsistent with that Act.

[Section 44H inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Tribunal award binding

44I (1) An award made by the Tribunal shall be binding on the parties to the matter before it—

- (a) as from the date of the award; or
- (b) subject to section 44J, from such date as may be specified in the award (not being earlier than the date on which the matter to which the award relates first arose).

(2) It shall be an implied term of the contract of employment between the employer and employee, to whom an award under subsection (1) relates, that the terms and conditions of employment to be observed under the contract shall be in accordance with such award until the same are varied—

- (a) by a subsequent binding award; or
- (b) by agreement between the employer and employee or employee representative.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, no award which specifies a period during which it is to be binding, whether made by the Tribunal to have prospective or retrospective effect, shall be binding for a period in excess of the period specified.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the reference to “parties” under subsection (1) includes the employer or any person succeeding (whether by virtue of a sale or other disposition or by operation of law) to the ownership or control of the business, the trade union, the employee and any other person to whom the award relates;
- (b) the reference to “contract of employment” under subsection (2) includes a collective agreement or such other agreement between the parties respecting the terms and conditions of employment.

[Section 44I inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Award may be retrospective

44J (1) Any award made by the Tribunal, may be made so as to have retrospective effect, but, subject to subsection (2), such effect shall not be prior to the date upon which the matter to which the award relates was first reported to the Manager or inspector (as the case may be).

(2) An award made by the Tribunal may be made so as to have retrospective effect prior to the date referred to in subsection (1) but not earlier than the date on which the matter to which the award relates first arose—

- (a) where both parties to the dispute consent thereto; or
- (b) where the matter relates solely to the retrospective effect of a contract of employment or collective agreement.

[Section 44J inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Question as to interpretation of an award

44K (1) If any question arises as to the interpretation of any award of the Tribunal or any alleged error therein, the Minister or any party to the award may apply to the Tribunal for a decision on such question and the Tribunal shall decide the matter after hearing the parties, or without such hearing, provided the consent of the parties has first been obtained.

(2) The decision of the Tribunal shall be notified to the parties and shall thereafter be deemed to form part of and shall have the same effect in all respects as the original award.

[Section 44K inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Non-compliance with award

44L (1) Where any person fails to comply with an award of the Tribunal or any part thereof, a person that is directly concerned in or affected by the non-compliance (hereafter referred to as an "aggrieved person") may, and without prejudice to any remedy or relief to which any person may be entitled apart from this section, make a complaint to the Tribunal.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(2) If on a complaint made under this section the Tribunal finds that the complaint is wholly or partly well-founded, it may grant one or both of the following—

- (a) an award of compensation to be paid to the aggrieved person;
- (b) a general award of such sum to be paid to the aggrieved person as the Tribunal thinks fit.

(3) The amount of the compensation awarded under this section shall be such amount as the Tribunal considers just and equitable.

(4) Where the Tribunal finds that the non-compliance was to any extent caused or contributed to by any action of the aggrieved person it may not award any compensation or sum or it may reduce the amount of compensation or sum by such proportion as it considers just and equitable having regard to that finding.

(5) An award under this section may within a period of 30 days after the award has been made be recovered as a civil debt in the Supreme Court or in a court of summary jurisdiction by the person or party to whom the compensation or sum is awarded.

(6) Without prejudice to any other provision relating to the Tribunal's power to grant an award under the Employment and Labour Code, no costs shall be payable in respect of proceedings before the Tribunal under this section.

(7) In subsections (1) to (5) of this section "person" includes a trade union.

[Section 44L inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Other functions of the Tribunal and appeals

Power of Tribunal to impose civil penalties

44M (1) Where a person contravenes a provision of the Employment and Labour Code for which a civil penalty is liable to be imposed, the Tribunal may subject to this section impose a civil penalty not exceeding $10,000 as the Tribunal considers appropriate for each such contravention.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) "appropriate" means effective, proportionate and dissuasive.

(3) Where the Tribunal proposes to impose a civil penalty on a person, it must give the person notice of—

- (a) the amount of the penalty;
- (b) the reasons for imposing the penalty; and
- (c) the right to make representations to the Tribunal within seven days of the date of such notice.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(4) If after considering any representations, the Tribunal decides to impose a civil penalty on a person, it must give the person notice of—

- (a) its decision to impose the penalty;
- (b) the amount of the penalty;
- (c) the reasons for the decision; and
- (d) the right to appeal in accordance with section 44O of this Act.

(5) A person upon whom a penalty is imposed under subsection (3) who does not appeal shall within 21 days either—

- (a) pay the penalty; or
- (b) pay a portion of the penalty and apply to the Manager for a payment schedule for the remainder.

(6) A civil penalty appealed against in accordance with section 44O shall not have effect—

- (a) until the end of the period within which the appeal can be brought; and
- (b) if such an appeal is brought, until it is determined or withdrawn.

(7) Any civil penalty imposed under this section—

- (a) shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund; or
- (b) if unpaid may be recovered as a debt owing in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) Where a civil penalty has been imposed on a person under any other provision of the Employment and Labour Code for a contravention, the person shall not also receive a civil penalty imposed under this section in relation to the same contravention.

[Section 44M inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Tribunal to submit reports

44N The panel chairman (as appointed under paragraph 3 of Schedule 2) shall, from time to time and at least once in each calendar year, submit to the Minister a report setting out awards made by the Tribunal under this Part; but any such report shall not reveal the names of any of the parties affected.

[Section 44N inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Appeals

44O (1) A party aggrieved by a determination, order, declaration or other decision of the Tribunal may appeal to the Supreme Court on a point of law.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) shall be lodged in the Registry within 21 days after receipt of notification of the determination, order, declaration or other decision of the Tribunal or such longer period as the Supreme Court may allow.

(3) On any such appeal, the Supreme Court may make such order, including an order as to costs, as it thinks fit.

(4) Section 62 of the Supreme Court Act 1905 shall be deemed to extend to the making of rules under that section to regulate the practice and procedure on an appeal under this section.

(5) The lodging of an appeal under this section shall act as a stay of any order of the Tribunal.

[Section 44O inserted by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

PART VI SUPPLEMENTARY

Regulations

45 (1) The Minister may make such regulations as he considers necessary or expedient to give effect to this Act, and regulations may make different provision for different cases.

(2) Regulations under this section shall be made subject to the negative resolution procedure.

Crown application

46 This Act binds the Crown.

Amendment of Labour Relations Act 1975

47 [Repealed by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7]

[Section 47 repealed by 2021 : 7 s. 99 & Sch. 7 effective 1 June 2021]

Transitional provisions

48 (1) For the purposes of this section—

“commencement date” means the date appointed under section 1;

“existing employee” means a person who was employed immediately before the commencement date;

“transitional period” means the period of one year beginning with the commencement date.

(2) For the purposes of section 5, an existing employee’s period of continuous employment shall be deemed to begin from and include the first day on which he began to work for his employer, notwithstanding that that day was before the commencement date.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

(3) In relation to existing employees, subsection (1) of section 6 shall have effect as if the following were substituted—

“(1) An employer shall, before the end of the transitional period, give to each of his existing employees a written statement of employment which shall be signed and dated by the employer and employee.

(1A) Subject to any additional requirements of this Act, the terms and conditions of employment evidenced in the written statement shall be at least as beneficial to the employee as the terms and conditions on which he was employed immediately before the commencement date.”

(4) No complaint made under section 36 shall be entertained by an inspector in so far as it relates to any alleged contravention of this Act by an employer in relation to an existing employee during the transitional period.

SCHEDULE 1

(Section 10B)

CONTENT OF POLICY STATEMENT AGAINST BULLYING AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The policy statement against bullying and sexual harassment referred to in section 10B shall contain the following provisions—

- (a) definitions of “bullying” and “sexual harassment” that are substantially the same as the definitions in section 10B;
- (b) a statement to the effect that every employee is entitled to employment free of bullying and sexual harassment;
- (c) a statement to the effect that the employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subjected to bullying or sexual harassment;
- (d) a statement informing employees of the measures, including disciplinary measures, that may be taken against any person within the workplace or under the employer’s direction who subjects any employee to bullying or sexual harassment;
- (e) a statement explaining how complaints of bullying and sexual harassment may be brought to the attention of the employer;
- (f) a statement to the effect that no person shall disclose the name of a complainant or the name of the respondent or the circumstances related to the complaint to any person except where disclosure is necessary for the purposes of investigating the complaint or taking disciplinary measures in relation thereto; and
- (g) a statement informing employees of the provision in the Human Rights Act 1981 which gives them a right to make a complaint where sexual harassment is committed against them and the relevant authority to whom the complaint must be made.

[Schedule 1 inserted by 2021 : 2 s. 23 effective 1 June 2021]

SCHEDULE 1A

(Section 10J)

SCHEDULE 2

(Section 44B)

THE EMPLOYMENT AND LABOUR RELATIONS TRIBUNAL

APPOINTMENT OF PANEL

1 The Minister shall, by notice published in the Gazette, appoint a panel of not less than 20 and not more than 30 persons as follows to serve as members of the Tribunal—

- (a) not more than 10 barristers and attorneys of not less than eight years' standing who possess Bermudian status;
- (b) not more than 10 persons with such experience or expertise as the Minister deems necessary to represent the interests of employers; and
- (c) not more than 10 persons with such experience or expertise as the Minister deems necessary to represent the interests of employees.

2 Before exercising his powers under paragraph 1, the Minister shall consult such trade unions and other organisations as appear to him to be representative of the views of employers and employees.

3 The Minister shall appoint from the panel a chairman ("panel chairman") and a deputy chairman ("panel deputy chairman") who shall hold office for a period of three years, and may be reappointed from time to time for a like period.

4 No person shall be qualified to be the panel chairman or panel deputy chairman appointed under paragraph 3 unless—

- (a) he is a barrister and attorney of at least eight years' standing; or
- (b) he has considerable experience in labour relations.

5 The members of the panel shall hold office for a period of three years, and may be reappointed from time to time for a like period.

6 The Minister may at any time, by notice published in the Gazette, appoint a person to act in the place of any member of the panel who is absent from Bermuda or who is for any reason incapacitated, but shall not appoint a person to act as panel chairman or panel deputy chairman unless that person is himself qualified under paragraph 4.

7 The panel chairman, panel deputy chairman or any panel member may at any time, except during the course of proceedings before them under this Act, resign his appointment by notice in writing addressed to the Minister.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

8 The panel chairman, panel deputy chairman and any members of the Tribunal constituted under paragraph 10 shall be entitled to receive out of the funds appropriated by the Legislature for the purpose such fees and allowances as the Minister may determine.

CONSTITUTION OF TRIBUNAL

9 For the purpose of determining any complaint, labour dispute or other matter referred to the Tribunal under the Employment and Labour Code, the Tribunal shall be constituted as follows.

10 (1) The panel chairman (or in his absence the panel deputy chairman) shall, subject to paragraph 11, select from the panel members appointed under paragraph 1—

- (a) a chairman;
- (b) a deputy chairman; and
- (c) one member.

(2) In respect of a deputy chairman and member selected under subparagraph (1)(b) and (c), one shall represent the interests of employers and the other shall represent the interests of employees.

11 No person shall be qualified to be the chairman or deputy chairman of the Tribunal unless—

- (a) he is a barrister and attorney of at least eight years' standing; or
- (b) he has considerable experience in labour relations.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

12 (1) Where a member of the Tribunal, constituted under paragraph 10, has any direct or indirect interest in any matter before it, he shall—

- (a) prior to the hearing of the matter, or otherwise at the earliest opportunity, disclose his interest to the Tribunal and to the panel chairman (or in his absence the panel deputy chairman);
- (b) not take part in any, or any further, discussion of the matter, and have no vote in relation to the matter, unless the Tribunal and the panel chairman (or in his absence the panel deputy chairman) has resolved that the interest does not give rise to a conflict of interest.

(2) Where subparagraph (1) applies, the member may recuse himself and where so recused shall be replaced by another member selected in accordance with paragraph 10.

EMPLOYMENT ACT 2000

VACANCIES

13 Where, during any proceedings, a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Tribunal it may, with the consent of all parties, continue to act notwithstanding the vacancy; and no act, proceeding or determination of a Tribunal shall be called in question or invalidated by reason of the vacancy.

ASSESSORS

14 In any proceedings the chairman or deputy chairman of the Tribunal may, if he thinks fit, summon to the assistance of the Tribunal any person of skill and experience in the matter to which the proceedings relate who is willing to assist the Tribunal as an assessor.

TRIBUNAL AUTONOMOUS

15 In the exercise of the powers conferred on it by this Act, the Tribunal shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

PROCEEDINGS

16 As soon as practicable after a matter is referred to the Tribunal, it shall hold a hearing and give all parties, or their representatives, full opportunity to present evidence on oath and make submissions.

17 Parties to any proceedings before the Tribunal may appear personally or be represented, by counsel or otherwise.

18 Notwithstanding section 44E, the Tribunal may impose reporting restrictions where it considers it necessary or desirable to protect the privacy of parties to a hearing.

19 The Arbitration Act 1986 shall not apply to any proceedings of the Tribunal or to any award made by it.

20 Save as otherwise provided by any provision of this Act or in regulations made by the Minister regulating the procedure to be followed by the Tribunal, the Tribunal shall regulate its own proceedings as it thinks fit.
